Message Clothing for a Cause

by Louise Roe

17 September

The clothes we wear send messages. And everyone wears clothes. So why not occasionally spell out our clothing message? Message clothing is available for any cause out there. You might not wear fur, but why not also occasionally wear a shirt that says "I choose not to wear fur"?

If you have any thoughts on this topic, let us know.

You have decided to comment on this blog post. In your comment you should:

- explain how the fashion industry can benefit from message clothing
- give reasons why some people may not like message clothing
- outline the cause you would support with message clothing

Write around 250 words.
